

Rights and responsibilities

As a tenant of Wesley Community Housing you are entitled to receive a service that meets quality standards. We want to keep in touch with you so we can make sure your experience with us is the best it can be.

As a tenant, you have the right to:

- be treated fairly, with dignity and respect as an individual
- be free from all forms of discrimination, harassment, neglect and abuse
- be consulted on your housing needs and preferences
- be informed of all decisions made about your tenancy
- have safe, secure, appropriate and affordable housing
- have information about you held securely, and treated sensitively and confidentially
- view any information held about you by Wesley Community Housing
- have Wesley Mission policies and procedures clearly explained to you when necessary
- lodge complaints, grievances or appeals involving alleged breach of Wesley Mission principles and policy guidelines and be given information about the complaints and disputes procedure
- use all services for clearer understanding and communication, including interpreter services, interpolator services and use of an advocate.

As a tenant, you have a responsibility to:

- treat other people, including staff, other tenants and neighbours, safely and with respect
- respect the privacy and confidentiality of staff, other tenants and neighbours
- take responsibility for the results of your own decisions and actions
- refrain from discriminating behaviour of any form
- make your needs known as far as you can, including asking questions or asking for information, and providing Wesley Community Housing with information needed to assist you
- tell staff as soon as possible if you are not happy with the service or the manner in which a service is being provided
- take responsibility for your own personal possessions
- meet all your payment responsibilities, including paying your rent on time and telling us if your circumstances change
- keep the property clean
- let us know as soon as possible if repairs or maintenance are needed (including smoke alarms)

- look after the security of the property, including advising us if there are any issues with security
- make sure family and visitors behave in an acceptable manner, as you are responsible for anything they do with your permission while they are in your home (for example, damaging a wall, playing loud music).
